Answering the matters and things alleged in the first paragraph of said Bill of Complaint, this respondent says that he admits that J. Further answering the matters and things in said first paragraph of said Bill of Complaint alleged, this respondent further says that a number of the persons therein named are married and that their respective husbands or wives have been wrongfully omitted from being named therein and made a party to this proceeding and that they should be made parties to this cause in order not to have a cloud upon the title to said real estate.
